There is great food, ample parking and large show field. There will again be an evening welcoming party Friday, September 21 at the Brickyard Crossing Inn adjacent to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Activities on Saturday will include a fun rally, drive around the famed 2 1/2 mile oval capped off by an awards banquet. At Sunday's car show, this year's featured marque will be T's & A's! (we mean the classic MGs, not -- er -- well -- you know). Other cars will be assigned to classes, with special Master's Class for last year's trophy winners, a motorcycle class and Diamond in the Rough Class for less than perfect vehicles. It is possible to attend just Sunday, but if you do, you won't get a dash plaque that tells everyone that your car has been driven on the most famous race track in the world.
