NEWS & NOTES

Sponsorship grows for Coronado Speed Festival

July 21, 2007

Plans and sponsors for the Coronado Speed Festival are on track for the 10th running of the weekend of vintage racing, Oct. 6 and 7.

To date, seven sponsors have renewed or signed new contracts for 2007. Among them is the Street and Racing Technology, or SRT, division of Chrysler Group, but not as title sponsor. TriWest Healthcare Alliance and Union Bank of California are new sponsors.

Other Speed Fest sponsors include BAE Systems, California Fuel Cell Partnership, DRS Technologies and San Diego Gas & Electric Co.

A Fleet Week San Diego event, the Coronado Speed Festival will showcase 225 vintage race cars competing in eight groups at Naval Air Station North Island.

Advance tickets are available online at www.fleetweeksandiego.org/coronadospeedfestival for $25 for one day and $30 for both days. Children 12 and younger enter free with paid adult admission.
