Car culture: Off-roaders at the race course

2:00 a.m. August 22, 2009

The Tierra Del Sol Four-Wheel Drive Club of San Diego will exhibit vehicles in the Car Corral of the Coronado Speed Festival and the club has been asked to do a parade lap during a lunch hour exhibition.

To add interest to its exhibit, the club is seeking an old Porsche body (or available clunker) on which members can demonstrate some vehicle-climbing skills.

The club was in force last year in the corral, with about five vehicles, and expects about 10 this year.
