

Jeffrey S. Robin
Attorney at Law, Independent Consultant

Jeff Robin, Esq., is currently an Independent Consultant responsible for strategic planning, corporate acquisitions, and legal matters. He was previously a Consultant to the Chief Operating Officer/General Counsel and Legal Department for International Creative Management, Inc., from November 2005 to June 2007.

Jeff started his law career in General Civil Practice. From then on, he was heavily involved in the entertainment industry working as its Attorney for both Paramount Pictures Corporation and Capitol Records, Inc., from February 1974 to June 1976 and October 1971 to November 1973, respectively. He negotiated and drafted television personal services, production, rights acquisition, merchandising and licensing agreements. He also dealt with copyright matters concerning records and music publishing, including record piracy.

He then moved on to become a Partner at Buchalter, Nemer, Fields & Younger, from June 1976 to August 1984. He represented production companies and individual talent in all areas of motion pictures, television, publishing, records and music including the negotiation and preparation of personal services, distribution, licensing, rights acquisition and subsidiary rights agreements. Jeff was the Senior Vice President for William Morris Agency, LLC, from August 1984 to June 1995. He was responsible for the negotiation and analysis of sophisticated matters involving personal services and rights acquisition and distribution agreements primarily in the motion picture area. He also counseled agents on complex entertainment issues.

Jeff earned his Juris Doctor from Loyola Law School and bachelor of arts in psychology from the University of Southern California. He was admitted to practice in the State Bar of California in January 1971. Jeff is affiliated with the San Diego County Bar Association, Los Angeles County Bar Association, Beverly Hills Bar Association, and the Los Angeles Copyright Society.
