

MIKE ALLEN, CAPT USN (Ret)

Mike Allen joined General Atomics in January 2009 as the Chief of Staff for the Advanced Technology Group with administrative duties that include Proposals and Marketing. Mike is also the President of General Atomics Systems Integration, LLC in May 2009 focusing on systems integration technologies, reliability improvements, and controls system design with military aging aircraft. Mike retired as a Captain, United States Navy, after a 29 year career which included numerous operational assignments as an F-14 Tomcat aircrew and served 3 years as the Air Boss aboard the USS John C Stennis. He has held 2 Navy shore commands, served on The Joint Staff and most recently served as the Chief of Staff for Navy Region Southwest (CNRSW) from 2004-2008.

Mike obtained extensive experience in the management of issues related to military bases and shore infrastructure with state and local officials as the Chief of Staff for CNRSW.

EDUCATION

Graduate of US Naval War College, (MA, National Security and Strategic Studies)

Graduate of University of California Los Angeles (BS, Mechanical Engineering)

Graduate of the US Navy Corporate Business Course conducted at the Naval Postgraduate School

CAREER CHRONOLOGY

1. 1979 – 2008 – United States Navy
2. 2009 – Present – General Atomics